SENIOR RELIGION

In addition to traditional classroom courses, Marist offers two options for seniors:

Senior Service is a double period, year-long course in which students serve one of several local organizations on a daily basis. This ministry supports hospitals, schools, nursing homes, and organizations dedicated to the disabled.

Peer Leadership provides training to seniors so they can work in Marist classrooms, providing support to both teachers and students in a variety of subject areas.

Both courses require seniors to attend seminars and reflect on their ministry and personal growth.
